BUSINESS –

1. Town Complaints:

- No new Town complaints as of this meeting
- No Oconto County Sheriffs spreadsheet listed for this meeting.

2. Discussion of Ordinances by Committee Members:

- Paula had questions on how it came to be the Town of Little Suamico had ordinances the Town Board thought we did not have. An incident happened at the Annual Town Meeting where a belligerent citizen was police escorted out. Liz Paape contacted Officer Garrett Beaten to apologize for the lack of ordinances to deal with this incident. To Liz's surprise Officer Beaten gave Liz a spreadsheet of ordinances which were passed by the previous Town Board back in March of 2020!!! Dave Daniels did some research and discovered Minutes of the ordinances passed.

- There were no ordinances posted on the computer/server system. No hard copy was turned over to the New at the time, Town Chairman or Town Clerk. How these ordinances were passed is up for discussion, but since a specific amount of time has passed the ordinances are viable.
- The ordinance committee will make revisions to the now Current TLS Ordinances which is titled Chapter 3 – Public Safety for the Town Board to review and to rescind those that are recommended to be removed and or changed. Doing so will have a strict protocol to follow.

3. Open discussion among Committee Members:

- The Committee discussed how to accept the other Draft Ordinances which overlap what is now the current TLS Ordinances and the ones that do not overlap.

4. Set Next Meeting Date

- Next Meeting set for June 17th Tuesday at 6:00pm Town Hall

5. Adjournment

- At 7:20pm Ed Galkowski motioned to adjourn, Kory Rentmeester seconded. Motion carried, meeting adjourned.
